Day 1

Bem-Vindos—Rio Is Ready for You!

Bem-vindos to the Cidade Maravilhosa! Land at Rio de Janeiro/Galeao International Airport (GIG) before 3 PM, where your personalized meet and greet sets the tone for everything to come. Transfer to the Fairmont Rio de Janeiro Copacabana—beachfront luxury with views that'll have you questioning if this is even real life. Each guest receives a $100 room credit ($200 for double occupancy) because we start as we mean to continue. Tonight's welcome dinner at the hotel's oceanfront restaurant serves sophisticated Brazilian cuisine with the famous beach as your backdrop—order what you like and bill it to your room against the credit.

Day 2

Beach Vibes & Carnival Secrets Revealed

Today you become a true carioca. Today's beach is where Rio locals actually hang—forget the tourist spots, this is real Brazil. Music playing, caipirinhas flowing, grilled cheese on sticks passing by, and the spontaneous samba circles that make Rio Rio. After soaking it all in, we go backstage at the greatest show on Earth on a behind-the-scenes Carnival tour. Discover the secrets, the preparations, the jet-setter energy behind the scenes. Lunch at the beach is on your own. Dinner is ours: a Michelin-recommended hillside restaurant in Santa Teresa, with the best views of the city. Today delivered.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 3

Selaron Stairs & Copacabana Brunch Goals

You've seen the Selaron Stairs in Snoop Dogg and Pharrell's 'Beautiful' video—now you're standing on them. These colorful mosaic steps are pure art, and your photos will absolutely break the internet. But we're just getting started: brunch at the iconic Copacabana Palace is legendary for a reason. Unlimited bubbles, poolside perfection, and the kind of spread that makes regular brunch feel inadequate. Cap it all off at Sugar Loaf Mountain for sunset cocktails overlooking the entire city. Magic.

Meals: Breakfast, Brunch

Day 4

Little Africa & Chef Skills Loading

Today we trace the African roots that pulse through Rio's soul. Little Africa (Pequena África) is where our story in Brazil begins—Pedra do Sal, the birthplace of samba; Valongo Wharf, a UNESCO World Heritage site and former slave port; and Instituto Pretos Novos preserving our ancestors' memory. Eduardo Kobra's massive 'Etnias' mural at Praça Mauá celebrates the faces of all continents. Afternoon brings a hands-on Brazilian cooking class where you'll master moqueca, tapioca, and brigadeiro. These skills are coming home.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 5

Christ the Redeemer—Bucket List Activated

Bucket list moment: Christ the Redeemer. One of the New Seven Wonders of the World stands with arms open, welcoming you above the clouds. The panoramic views are unreal. Lunch at a Michelin Guide steakhouse serves premium cuts that'll ruin you for regular steakhouses. The Botanical Gardens are a photographer's paradise—majestic palm trees, vibrant flowers, and tranquility that feels like the universe is giving you a hug. Today feeds your soul.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 6

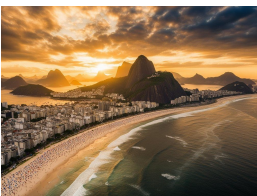

All-White Yacht Party—How Legends Celebrate

The grand finale has arrived, and it's giving everything. Don your all-white fit and board our private yacht for the celebration of a lifetime. From 10 AM to 2 PM we sail Rio's stunning coast, stopping for refreshing swims in crystalline waters alongside people who've become family. The city skyline, Sugar Loaf, and Christ the Redeemer serve as your backdrop. This is the yacht party you'll talk about forever. Rio outdid herself, and so did you.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 7

No Goodbyes, Just See You Soon!

One final breakfast at the Fairmont, one final gaze at Copacabana Beach. Your private transfer takes you to Rio de Janeiro/Galeao International Airport (GIG)—flights should depart after 8 AM—carrying samba rhythms in your heart, Carnival energy in your spirit, and connections that'll last a lifetime.
