A Sample 6-Day Journey

A sample itinerary. This is a private trip, planned around your dates and your people; every day of it can be changed. Book a call and we will make it yours.

Day 1

Bienvenidos—Let the Wine Journey Begin!

Welcome to Mexico's wine country! Touch down at the airport and get whisked away to a charming coastal village for your first taste of Baja California—a legendary lobster brunch with rice, beans, and flour tortillas that'll make you understand why people fly here just to eat. Continue through stunning landscapes to El Cielo Winery & Resort, your home for the next five nights. You wake up in the heart of wine country with the vineyards in view. Tonight's welcome dinner pairs exquisite cuisine with a Wine Expert who'll guide your palate through Mexico's finest.

Meals: Brunch, Dinner

Day 2

Historic Wine Valley—Create Your Own Wine Magic

Today we journey south to one of Mexico's oldest and most respected wine regions. The valley's unique climate and fertile soil create wines that rival anywhere in the world. Participate in a hands-on wine-making workshop at one of the region's largest and oldest wineries, where you learn the wine-making process and even craft your own unique blend. Tonight's gastronomic dinner at a celebrated local restaurant showcases the region's finest paired with local wines.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 3

Valle de Guadalupe—Village Stops and a Long Vineyard Lunch

Breakfast at the hotel with the vineyards in front of you, then out into the valley: browse the local shops, try a wine slush and fresh chicharrón while the morning is still cool. Lunch runs long at a restaurant with vineyard views that belong on a postcard. The afternoon is a tasting at an acclaimed boutique winery whose blends of native and international grapes helped put this region on the map. A free late afternoon to explore at your leisure, then dinner at a renowned farm-to-table restaurant where the menu changes with the season.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 4

Culinary Tradition in Valle de Ojos Negros

Breakfast at your hotel, then late morning at one of the most respected vineyards in Valle de Guadalupe, the one that changed how the world read Mexican wine. Lunch runs long at a celebrated winery restaurant, where the menu is built around the region and the tasting comes with it. The evening is deliberately open. Wind down at your hotel as the light goes over the vines, or head back out into the valley for an impromptu tasting at a smaller producer.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 5

A Free Day to Explore

Today is left open on purpose so you can follow your own taste and pace. Take the valley by car, bike or a slow walk through the vineyards. Two or three tastings with a long lunch between them is the shape most people land on. The valley's wine museum tells the story of Baja wine; some wineries are built for slow sipping, others are the smaller, quieter rooms, and a few do wood-fired, farm-driven lunches worth the afternoon. At five, the farewell dinner: five courses from a renowned local chef, traditional Mexican flavours put through a modern kitchen.

Meals: Breakfast, Farewell Dinner

Day 6

No Goodbyes, Just See You Soon!

A last breakfast at your hotel with the vineyard in front of you, then your private transfer to Tijuana airport. You arrived curious about Mexican wine and you leave a convert. Pack the bottles carefully; the memories will age as well as the best of them.
