MEET THE FOUNDER

Claire B. Soares

6X Condé Nast Top Travel Specialist

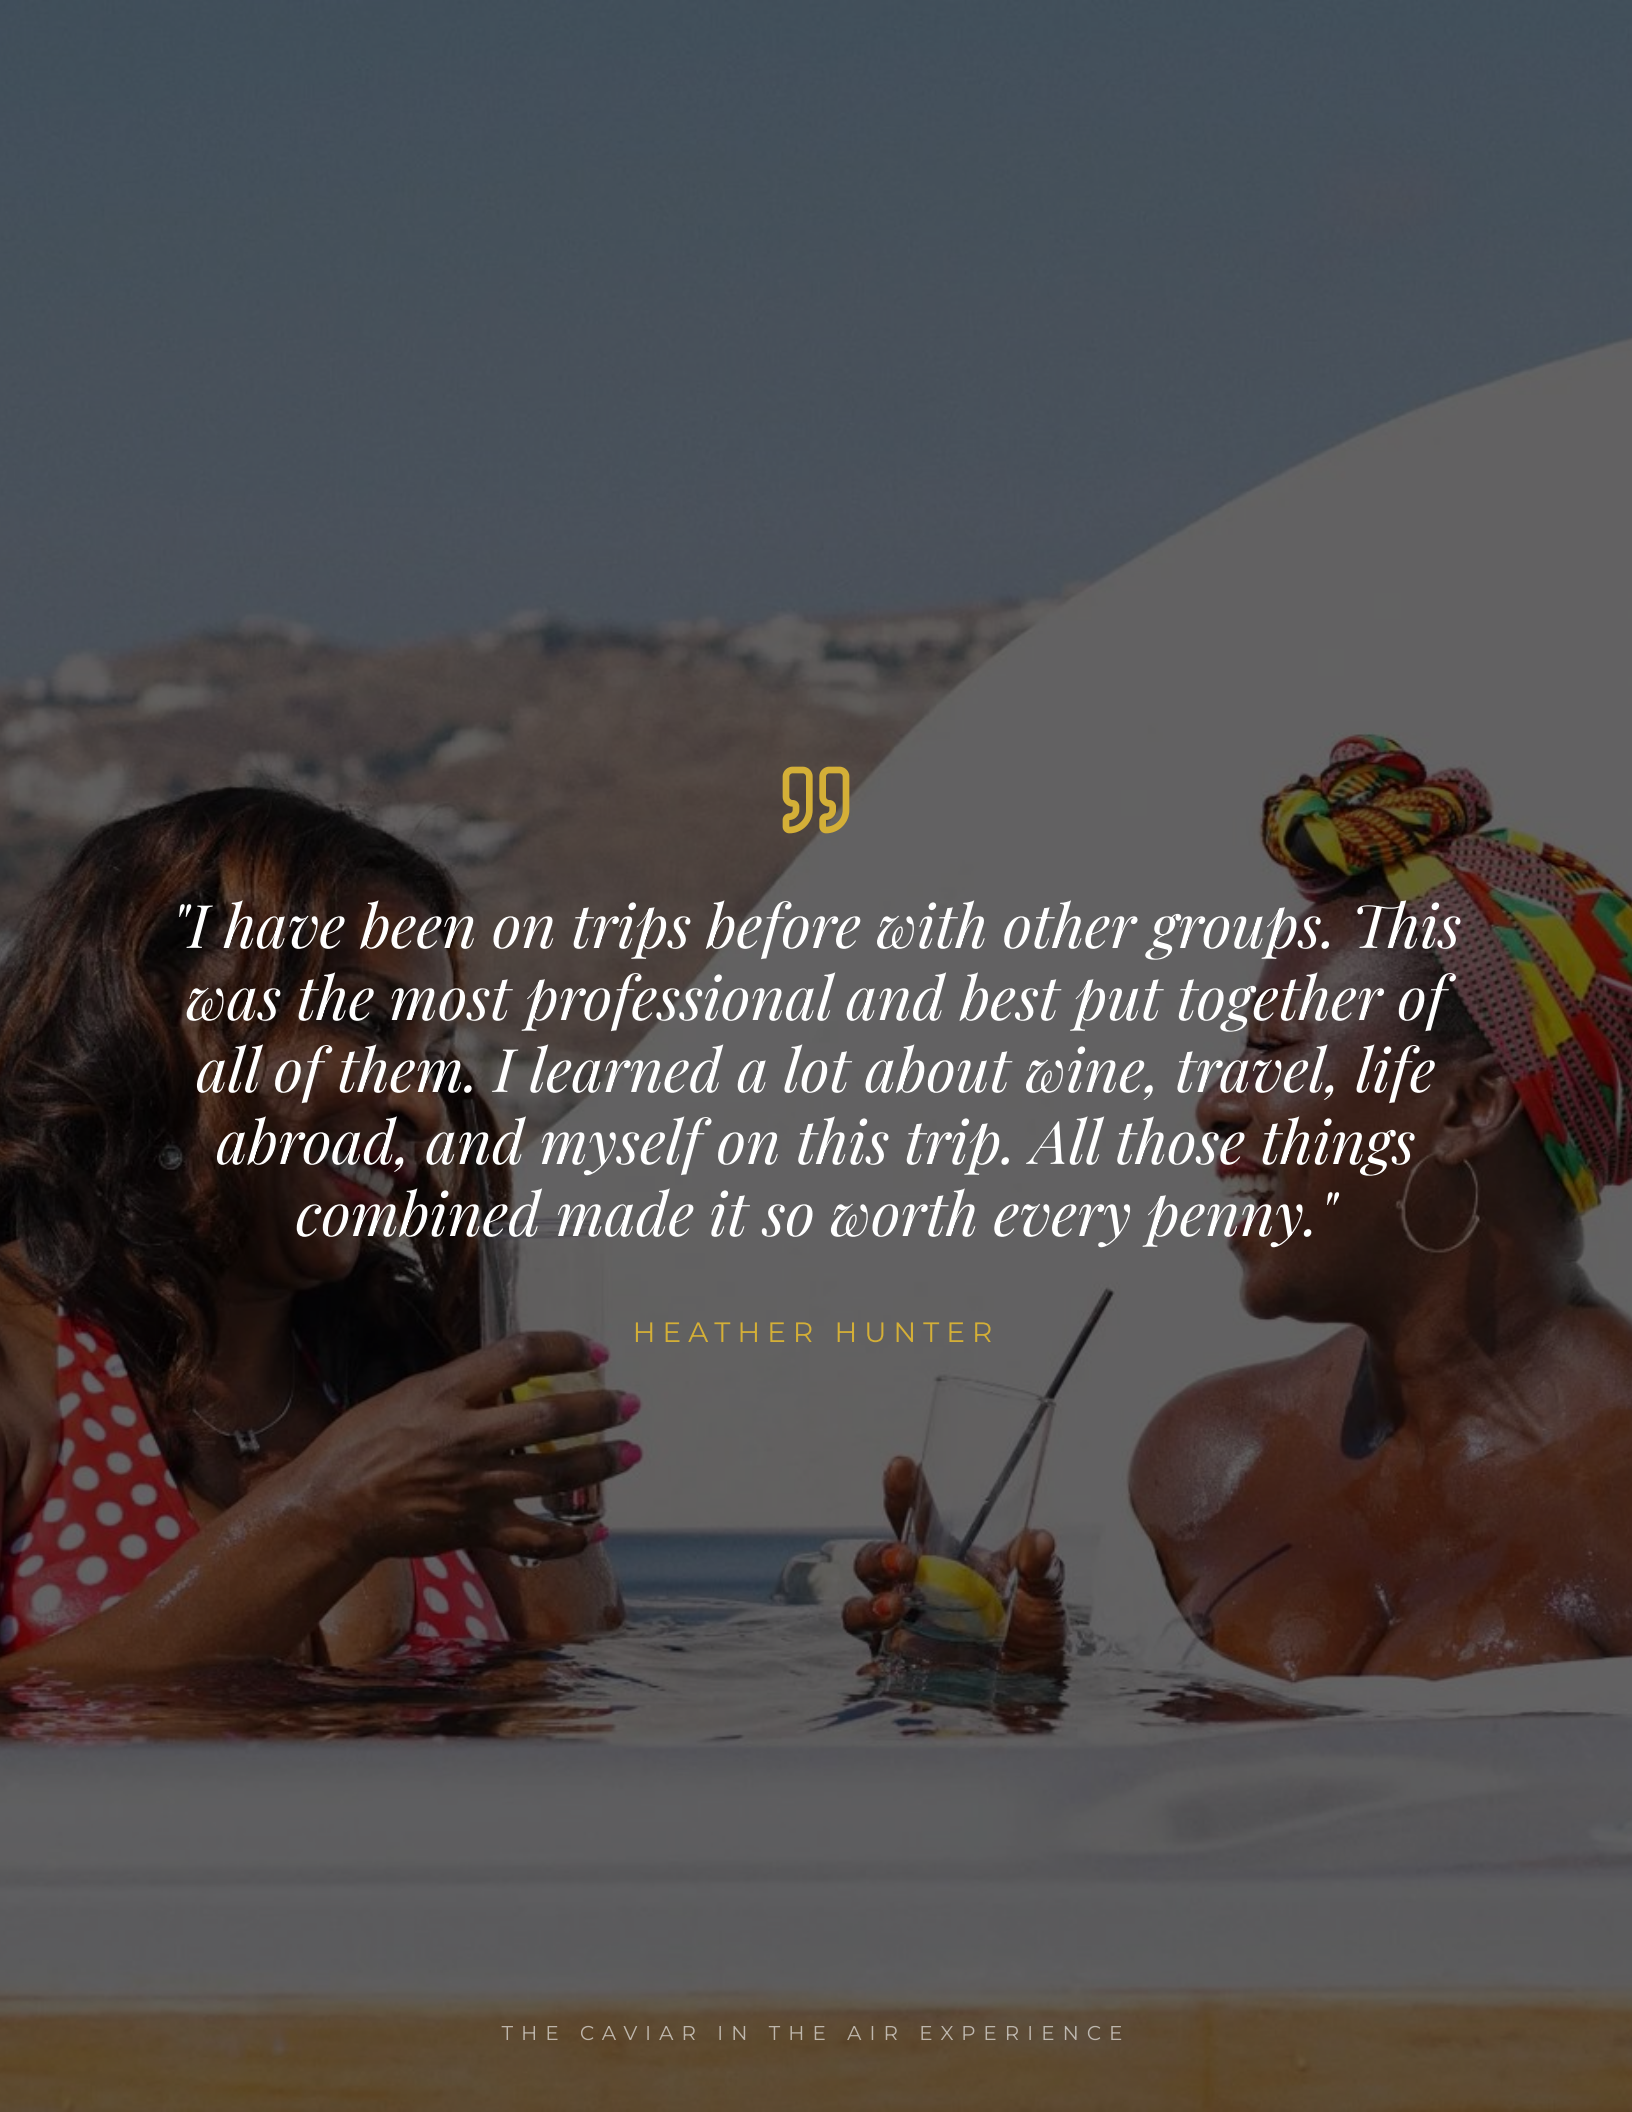

Founder & CEO, Caviar in the Air

Claire B. Soares is the visionary behind Caviar in the Air, the premier international luxury travel concierge that has transformed how Black professionals experience the world.

For Claire, luxury isn't about excess. It's about feeling seen, celebrated, and cared for at every turn. With Caviar in the Air, your travels are more than trips—they're the life you've earned, lived boldly and beautifully.

Whether she's leading a group through the wine regions of South Africa, exploring the pyramids of Egypt, or sailing the Croatian coast, Claire brings her signature blend of sophistication, warmth, and attention to detail to every journey.

Claire B. Soares

"I have been on trips before with other groups. This was the most professional and best put together of all of them. I learned a lot about wine, travel, life abroad, and myself on this trip. All those things combined made it so worth every penny."

THE JOURNEY AWAITS

Where Wine Meets African Soul

Get ready to sip, savor, and slay through Portugal's most exquisite wine country. This isn't just a trip—it's main character energy meets old-world elegance. Discover the African heritage woven through Lisbon's soul, indulge in sommelier-curated wines at stunning vineyards, and let the Tivoli Avenida Liberdade spoil you in five-star luxury. Come for the wine, stay for the culture, leave transformed. Then a first-class train carries you north to Porto and the Douro Valley, where the second half of the week is port, river and a farewell at The Yeatman.

DAY BY DAY

A Sample 7-Day Journey

A sample itinerary. This is a private trip, planned around your dates and your people; every day of it can be changed. Book a call and we will make it yours.

Day 1

Touch Down in Lisbon—Afro-Lisbon Stories & an Angolan Table

Touch down in Lisbon, where you are met at the airport and driven to the Tivoli Avenida Liberdade, one of the city's grandest addresses. By late afternoon you are walking: an exclusive guided tour of Lisbon's African heritage, from the pioneering Black women of Avenida da Liberdade to the Moorish palace of Casa do Alentejo, a glass of ginginha at Largo de São Domingos and the Church of the Black Brotherhood, and the Black women entrepreneurs of Rossio Square. Dinner is at Casa de Angola: Angolan-Portuguese fusion, moamba chicken and fish calulu, with wine.

Meals: Dinner

Day 2

Lisbon, Your Way—Then a Modern Portuguese Table

A slow breakfast at the hotel, then the day is yours. If you want it, a morning of shopping and a private wine tasting in Lisbon led by our wine expert is on offer as an optional experience. Tonight the group gathers again for a multi-course dinner at Taberna Moderna, one of our favourite local spots for a modern twist on Portuguese cooking, with expertly paired wines throughout.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 3

Wine Country Dreams—Two Quintas and a Rooftop

Out of the city to Quinta de Chocapalha near Óbidos, where wine has been made since the sixteenth century and Sandra Tavares, one of Portugal's leading women winemakers, sets the pace: a premium tasting and a paired lunch at the estate, then time in the winery shop. The afternoon is Quinta de Sant'Ana at Gradil, recently converted to organic viticulture, for a six-wine tasting with gourmet tapas. Back in Lisbon, dinner at SEEN, the rooftop with the panoramic view.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 4

North to Porto—First Class, Then Dinner at Home

Bags go down to the driver after breakfast, and at Oriente station you board the first-class fast train to Porto: the Portuguese countryside, Coimbra, and a stretch of Atlantic coast before the city. Your driver meets you at the station. Check in at The Rebello in Vila Nova de Gaia, a restored nineteenth-century port wine warehouse turned boutique hotel, with an infinity pool over the Douro. Tonight's dinner is hosted at the hotel's Pot & Pan restaurant.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 5

The Douro Valley—Port, a Michelin Table and a Rabelo Boat

A two-hour drive up the Douro to Quinta do Bomfim in Pinhão, Dow's historic estate, for a private visit and the Estate Vintages tasting of quinta vintage ports. Lunch at Bomfim 1896 by Michelin-starred chef Pedro Lemos, paired with estate wines on the riverside. Then an hour on the river aboard a traditional Rabelo boat, and a private tasting at Quinta dos Murças, an organic winery across eight terroirs in the heart of the DOC. Back to Porto for a free evening in Gaia; your concierge will book you a table.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 6

World of Wine—and a Farewell at The Yeatman

A morning at the World of Wine museum in Gaia, a tour built around the history and craft of Portuguese wine. The afternoon is yours: the riverside, the port lodges, a last walk across the Dom Luís bridge. Dress up for the evening. The farewell dinner is at The Yeatman, Porto's most prestigious wine hotel: langoustine and veal tartare, black pork with clams, chocolate and pistachio, coffee and mignardises, with a drinks selection included.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 7

Until Next Time, Beautiful Soul!

A last breakfast at The Rebello with the Douro below you, then your private transfer to Porto airport. You arrived for the wine; you leave with two cities, two valleys and a table full of new friends.

Meals: Breakfast
